Highlights of new coverage of management and business education from Economist.com

June 24th 2009

Business.view: The Jack Welch MBA
Following his investment in an online MBA programme, now you too can manage like Neutron Jack. Expect it to be straight from the gut and politically incorrect. More >

Correspondent's diary: The Haas School of Business
Five years after his own graduation, our correspondent returns to class to discover today's MBAs face a much grimmer scene. More >

Management idea: Private equity
A trillion-dollar idea lately beset by a few problems. More >

Management guru: Joseph Juran
A pioneer of quality control, admired by the Japanese. More >

Business education: News from the schools
Kellogg's dean steps down, CEIBS launches in Africa and MBAs promise to be good. More >

Face value: Godly but ambitious
Adnan Youusif wants to build the first truly global Islamic bank. More >
