AIESEC CONTRIBUTION AWARD

Malaysia, 2009.

It has been a long way since

1986, the year when Bo Grabowski joined AIESEC. Ever since then, he has continued to make a positive impact not only in our organization but also in the society.

In 1988 he became Local Committee President in AIESEC in Denmark. This was only a starting point for his bright career.

In the year 1993, he decided to participate in the AIESEC exchange program and headed to East Asiatic Company (EAC) in Malaysia.

Since then, Bo has worked and travelled to different countries, interacting in several environments and cultures.

From being a management trainee, Bo strove hard and he took only 2 years to become Business Manager in EAC.

"Bo Grabowski is without a doubt the most celebrated alumni to us. His passion towards AIESEC, world-ly and significant professional experiences, and a man of wisdom has made him an incredible mentor to the national team, contributing in all possible ways with the best of his ability to make AIESEC a better organization."

- James Loh, President 08/09, AIESEC in Malaysia

As he climbs the corporate ladder, he moved on to many multinational companies and performed excellently in each portfolio that he took.

From Business Manager in EAS, to General Manager in Maersk Logistics, Managing Director in IDS Logistic and currently the DKSH Logistics' Managing Director, he achieved to drive growth in all the organizations he worked with.

Today, he is Chairperson of Supervisory Group of AIESEC Malaysia and has participated supporting many of its activities including the AIESEC International Congress 2009.

He has given sound advices for AIESEC Alumni Malaysia and also being a Danish, he has helped to link a lot of alumnus together as friends, internationally and also in APAC region.

17 years have passed and he continues to serve and contribute to our organization and the development of our members.

He is truly an AIESEC Alumnus, one of our role models, who continues to make a positive impact in society.
