AIESEC CONTRIBUTION AWARD

Malaysia, 2009.

AIESEC globally, on a yearly basis, has a constant flow of people, who leave this organisation and move on to become AIESEC Alumnus.

There are very few among them, who have the passion, commitment and the patience to 'come back' to AIESEC and provide their time, experience and support in helping, this organisation to be sustainable and continue to generating positive leadership through creating life changing experiences.

Mr. Ahmad Budiman is one of them as after setting and founded AIESEC in the Local Committee of Brawijaya and the Presided it for two years, from 1987 until 1989 University of Brawijaya .

"AIESEC Indonesia is very happy to see, one of their most contributing alumni's getting this global contribution award. Mr. Bido has been a pillar for AIESEC Indonesia. He has selflessly supported us through his passion, commitment and love for AIESEC Indonesia and has played a big role for our success over these past few years.

Thank you so much Mr. Bido, for being a role model alumni and standing by us."
